September is Senior Citizens Month

Greetings, Saints of God.

The East Jamaica Conference Senior Citizens Ministry will join in on the month-long highlight of our Senior Citizens in September. September is Senior Citizens Month and we will celebrate under the theme “Seniors, our National Treasure”.

The theme from the National Council for Senior Citizens is “Embracing Wisdom ... Uniting Generations.”

We are asking that we recognize our Seniors in a special service during their month. You can consider doing this by selecting Seniors to honour by presenting gifts or the like. A Sabbath in the month or a fraction of the day's services can be used to put the spotlight on our Seniors. Also, any other day whether morning, afternoon or evening a special service can be planned and prepared for them.

Please do not forget to invite and celebrate with our Seniors in the community or non-members of our Church. Let us aim to incorporate them too in the honours and highlight of our Seniors.

We expect that during the month of September, our Seniors will feel appreciated, and loved and they will be affirmed of the legacy they have created.

We are grateful for the continuous care and attention you provide to our Senior Citizens.

Yours in the Master's Hand,

Sheldon Schooler
Pastor
