

The EJC Publishing Ministries' mantra is “Changing society a book at a time”

Theme: “Bringing home into every home”

Mission Statement: The Publishing Ministries of East Jamaica Conference exists to proclaim the everlasting gospel through literature giving hope and certainty.

Vision: Full-time and part-time Colporteurs, students, and members working with greater commitment and living in readiness for the second coming.

Ministry Priorities:

1. To distribute
2. To train
3. To sell
4. To recruit
5. To promote

A Noble Ministry

In 1848, the Lord revealed the following to Ellen G. White: “You must begin to print a little paper and send it out to the people... From this small beginning was shown to me to be like streams of light that went clear round the world.”—Life Sketches, p. 125.

“Our publishing work was established by the direction of God and under His special supervision.” PM 41

“From the light given me, I know that where there is one canvasser in the field, there should be one hundred. {CM 25.2}

The Church's Role in Publishing Ministries

When the church members realize the importance of the circulation of our literature, they will devote more time to this work. Papers, tracts, and books will be placed in the home of the people...—Manuscripts 113.

Who is a Literature Evangelist?

A literature Evangelist is a self-supporting person who devotes himself or herself to the distribution of Bibles, religious, health, moral, and educational publications produced by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Classification of Literature Evangelists

The Seventh-day Adventist Church recognized three groups of Literature Evangelists:

1. The Regular

- i) The regular devotes himself or herself exclusively to the Literature Ministry.

2. Student

- ii) The student literature Evangelist canvasses during the school vacation period
- iii) The student program is dubbed, East Jamaica Youth Challenge (EJYC) which is a youth scholarship and community development program. Every summer students get the opportunity to 'distribute our truth-filled publications like leaves of autumn' and to earn their tuition.

3. Part-time

- iv) The part-time literature Evangelist canvasses on a part-time basis
