I greet you warmly in the awesomely amazing name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Soon-Coming King.

The East Jamaica Conference (EJC) Adventist Community Services (ACS) Federation will host our regular monthly meetings on the fourth Sunday for the next three sittings. Specifically, September, October, and November 2026, at the usual location: The East Jamaica Conference Chapel, 74 Constant Spring Road, Kingston 10. We meet from 10 am to 1 pm. The next three meetings will highlight features as follows:

-  Sunday, September 27, 2026, will see Mrs. Charmaine Muirhead from the Planning Institute of Jamaica (PIOJ) presenting on Accessing Grants and Funding Community Projects.
-  Sunday, October 25, 2026, will be Elections and the presentation of the Director's Quadrennial Forecast.
-  Sunday, November 22, 2026, our Jamaica Union Adventist Community Services Director, Pastor Adrian Cottrell, will give a presentation, outline plans, share projections, and provide much-needed updates for the future.

We especially invite all our EJC ACS Federation Members, those interested in joining, and all others interested in Adventist Community Services.

The three meetings are geared toward excellence in Adventist Community Services and fulfilling the mission of the Adventist Church as we prepare to SOAR higher in Adventist Community Services.
