LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

CLAUDETTE GENAS

Finally, our back-to-school initiatives, spearheaded by Women's Ministries, made a meaningful difference in the lives of many families. We were able to distribute school supplies to children in need, ensuring that they were well-prepared for the new academic year.

This initiative, supported by generous donations from our church members, reflects our ongoing commitment to serving our community in practical and impactful ways. I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who contributed time, resources, and prayers to the success of our programs this quarter. Together, we are making a difference, and I look forward to seeing how God continues to lead us in the months ahead.

As we reflect on the third quarter of this year, I am deeply thankful for the growth and impact of our Women's Ministries. Our focus has been on fostering spiritual development, strengthening our sense of community, and expanding our outreach efforts. One of the highlights this quarter was our outreach programs. These sessions have been a source of healing and empowerment, as women came together to pray, share personal testimonies, donate and uplift one another. Many have testified to a renewed sense of faith and commitment, strengthening both their personal spiritual lives and the unity within our congregation.

the Girls of Eloquence Morals and Standards (GEMS) executive body led a heartwarming visit to the Homestead Home of Safety, where the young women provided support and shared uplifting messages with the residents. This outreach not only impacted the lives of those at the home but also strengthened the GEMS members' dedication to service. Additionally, we celebrated the GEMS anniversary with special events in several SDA churches, highlighting the incredible growth and achievements of these young women. These tiny celebrations have served as a reminder of the importance of nurturing the next generation of female leaders within the church.
