Message from the EJC President

Dear Fellow Master Guides,

It is with immense joy and pride that I welcome each of you to the Master Guide Reunion, themed “Reclaiming and Renewing Our Love.” This event is not merely a gathering; it is a homecoming, a moment to reflect on our shared journey, reignite our commitment to service, and renew the love that initially brought us into this ministry.

We are deeply grateful for your unwavering commitment to supporting our Pathfinders and Adventurers. Your service has inspired generations to love God, value others, and care for the environment. From the early days of the East Jamaica Conference’s larger territory, your influence has shaped leaders who continue to make a significant impact. One noteworthy example is Pastor Joel Jumpp, our East Jamaica Conference Youth Ministries Director, who stands as a testament to your investment in youth.

As Master Guides, your influence extends beyond the church, positively affecting communities, public institutions, and workplaces. I encourage each of you to lay the foundation for a sustainable system that preserves your wisdom and passion, ensuring the continuation of impactful youth ministry within the East Jamaica Conference and beyond.

We honour the esteemed Master Guides and past leaders whose commitment has shaped the Seventh-day Adventist Youth Ministry. Their legacy continues to inspire us and profoundly influences the lives of our youth today. Let us cherish this fellowship and allow the love we experience here to empower us to guide youth in advancing His kingdom.

A special thank you to Master Guide Carol Hunter and her Camp committee for their dedication, and to Master Guide Valrie Pickering-Bailey for her leadership in organizing this reunion. May our collective faithfulness inspire those who come after us.

Blessings to all,

Meric Dale Walker JP, PhD.

President

Dear Master Guide Family. Our reunion is a divine appointment to refresh our spirits, deepen our devotion to Christ, and reignite our passion for His service. During these three days at Camp Don we will embrace and embody our theme: “Reclaiming and Renewing Our Love.” May we reclaim fervent love for the Lord.

This gathering celebrates esteemed Master Guides, former Youth Ministries Directors and leaders who have been vital pillars in this dream called Seventh-day Adventist Youth Ministry. Their legacy of steadfast commitment as spiritual mentors and leaders has left indelible marks on us and profoundly influences the lives of our youth today, exemplifying faith and deep spiritual growth.

Let us cherish this time of fellowship and inspiration, at our beloved Camp Don, to renew our spirits and empower us to guide youth across the globe in advancing the advent message to all the world.

To all our Master Guides, your unwavering commitment to Youth Ministry and Master Guide in particular, reunion will be remembered for years to come. May those who come behind us find us faithful.
